MARCO CAMISANI CALZOLARI
THE DIGITAL RENAISSANCE MAN
It’s an attribute that would lead him to becoming a self-taught expert in the fields of digital technology and communications.

Following his studies and early career, Marco quickly gained an appreciation for the art of communicating complex digital concepts to mainstream audiences. In 2022, Marco was best known for his role on one of Italy’s most popular shows called Striscia la Notizia, where he hosted a digital and tech segment. Passionate about learning and sharing his expertise, Marco also authored many books and was a guest lecturer at several universities. A common thread weaving all his experiences together was a desire to help people with their daily digital and tech queries. At the beginning of 2022, Marco was thinking about his resolutions and ventures for the coming year, and several questions came to mind that required answers.
